Course presentation	The course in Contemporary History – Advanced Course aims to deepen the basic knowledge of the events of the contemporary world already acquired in the basic course, offering students additional tools for interpreting contemporary reality. The course will be divided into several lectures dedicated to the examination of some of the most significant aspects relating to the 19th and 20th centuries, going in depth into the dynamics, themes and protagonists of Italian and international history.
Prerequisites	Basic knowledge of Contemporary History.
Information for Erasmus+ incoming students	Lectures of Contemporary History – Advanced Course are held in Italian (English only under request). Erasmus+ students may however take the oral examination in English. The examination programme, which involves the use of texts available in the university library, must be agreed directly with the Professor through a student reception (online or in person). Erasmus+ students are advised to make contact with the Professor by email before embarking on the study of the subject.
