

Subject	History of European Political Cooperation
Study level and course	Master's Degree in International Relations (LM-52)
Academic year	2025/2026
Total number of credits	9
Professor	Silvio Berardi Link to personal page: https://ricerca.unicusano.it/author/silvio-berardi/ Nickname: silvio.berardi E-mail: silvio.berardi@unicusano.it Reception hours: see the course notices section on the platform and the video conference calendar on the University website.
Course presentation	The course in History of European Political Cooperation aims to provide students with a basic knowledge of the main stages that marked the evolution of the institutional, political, economic and cultural process of European political cooperation in the 20th century. The course will be divided into lectures dedicated to the examination of some of the most significant aspects related to this process, including the origins of European political cooperation in the twentieth century; Italian political parties and European political cooperation after World War II; Italy in European political cooperation; the role of women in European political cooperation; European political cooperation and the Catalan question; European Right and Euroscepticism; the United Kingdom and European political cooperation (monographic section).
Prerequisites	Basic knowledge of Contemporary History, History of International Relations, and History of European Integration.
Information for Erasmus+ incoming students	Lectures of History of European Political Cooperation are held in Italian (English only under request). Erasmus+ students may however take the oral examination in English. The examination programme, which involves the use of texts available in the university library, must be agreed directly with the Professor through a student reception (online or in person). Erasmus+ students are advised to make contact with the Professor by email before embarking on the study of the subject.