

Code: IUS/13	Credits: 9
Subject: Law of International Organizations and global governance
Main language of instruction: Italian
Other language of instruction: English

Teaching Staff

Head instructor

Prof. Chiara Ginesti_ - chiara.ginesti@unicusano.it

Dr. Federico Boldini_ - Federico.boldini@unicusano.it

Prerequisites

Access to the course in Law of International Organizations and global governance requires possession of a bachelor's degree in class L-36 or curricular requirements, referable to knowledge of disciplines related to Political Science and International Relations: International Law and/or European Union Law.

Objectives

The course in Law of International Organizations and global governance, provides for the study of the rules of international organizations' operation and global governance systems focusing on how global norms and rules facilitate transnational economic cooperation.

Competencies:

The Law of International Organizations and global governance is designed to enhance and refine students' understanding of global dynamics, international relations and the role played by international organizations in global governance through an interdisciplinary education that integrates different perspectives.

Syllabus

Programme:

Topic 1. The International Organizations

Topic 2. The structure and functioning of International Organizations

Topic 3. The legal personality of Organizations and the internal legal order

Topic 4. The conditions for the attribution of international responsibility

Topic 5. International cooperation and global governance

Topic 6. Monographic section: cyber risks and health security

Evaluation system and criteria

The final assessment is conducted, alternatively, in oral or written form in Italian.

The written exam consists of approximately 30 multiple-choice questions

Bibliography and resources

1. Materials to consult: The materials for the exam are available on the e-learning platform. For those who wish to study in English, the materials is available in the ERASMUS folder.
2. Recommended bibliography: DRAETTA - Principi di diritto delle organizzazioni internazionali, Giuffrè Francis Lefebvre